Message from the President

Mark Perkins

Greetings to all -

I look forward to seeing everyone at our May meeting at Prairie House Restaurant, followed by a plant tour hosted by the Upper Trinity Regional Water District. We'll have a lot going on at the May meeting, including officer elections, recognition of several local science fair winners, and a presentation prior to the plant tour. The seating capacity is limited - please register early!

Phil Spitzer will take the reins as president when the "WEAT year" ends in June. Our nominating committee has recommended Sherri van der Wege to fill the Section Rep. role as Jeff Caffey moves to the Vice President role at the State level; Heather Wootton has been nominated as Secretary. Both of these nominees, along with the rest of our numerous officers and committee chairs, will continue to bring energy and enthusiasm to the North Texas Section!

Texas Water 2020 will be in Fort Worth – planning will begin soon, and numerous volunteers will be needed. As WEAT Co-Chair for the conference, I'd love to hear from anyone who would like a role in the conference.

As you'll see on subsequent pages of this newsletter, we have an incredible team of volunteers working hard to do good things for our members, our communities, and for deserving students throughout the area. It has been an honor and a privilege to serve as president of the section for the last year, and it is exciting to know that we have so many active members ready and willing to help continue and expand our traditions.

See you at the May meeting!

16th Annual Daryl Hall Memorial Golf Tournament

Daryl Hall Memorial Golf Tournament 2018 Recap

The 2018 Daryl Hall Memorial Golf Classic was a tremendous success thanks for our sponsors, volunteers, host and golfers! The weather could not have been better and it included a heartwarming show of gratitude from the Hall family to John Bennet on the heels of the May 2018 graduation of Jared from Tarleton State University (TSU) with his master's degree and Stephanie from TSU with her bachelor's degree. Both were honored as Outstanding Graduates in their respective degrees. Thanks to all of our sponsors and donors, over $15,800 was raised in support of the Daryl Hall Scholarship Fund! In keeping with Daryl's desire to give back to our industry and help others, the Daryl Hall Memorial Scholarship Fund continues to extend financial assistance to employees of North Texas Utilities and their children for education thanks to your support. We hope to see you again this year!

Historian Highlights

Thanks, Wes Eckenfelder

At the Gloyna Breakfast at Texas Water last month, Betty Jordan gave a Jordanesque presentation recognizing the lives and careers of three notable educators in our industry – Doctors Ernest Gloyna, Davis Ford, and Wesley Eckenfelder. These men made significant contributions, individually and jointly, to the body of knowledge in the water environment and resources arenas. Their careers crossed paths in the last half of the 1960's as faculty of the UT Austin Civil Engineering Department program with many of our industry leaders having studied under their tutelage. Ernie and Wes had distinguished careers in education until their passing earlier this year and in 2010 respectively. Davis currently leads a consulting firm after many years at UT Austin. Betty described this as "we are standing on the shoulders of giants."

Wes Eckenfelder was widely known as the "Father of Industrial Waste Management". He taught for thirty-six years, established several consulting firms, and authored over thirty books. He received numerous awards domestically and internationally, had two prestigious awards named for him, and WEAT remembers him with the Eckenfelder Lecture Series. Even with this accounting of accomplishment and recognition, the story is only half told.

Wes' wit was legendary. I feel sure that anyone who has had the pleasure of attending his lectures has a story. For example, he would fit a graph line among a seemingly unrelatable set of data points knowing his audience would have a degree of skepticism. The audience was next presented with evidence of the line's prediction accuracy - point Eckenfelder. He lost his vision in his later years. When asked highly detailed questions during his lectures, he could identify the exact overhead projector slide that would yield the answer, much to the amazement of his audience.

This leads me to my favorite story about Wes. As I recall 35 years ago, getting this newly chartered North Texas Section of WEAT up and running presented some challenges. After each dinner meeting, a handful of officers and volunteers met to count the proceeds, secure the next speaker and identify a consultant to underwrite the next meeting. The section was operating on a meeting-to-meeting basis and we needed a spark. Wes Eckenfelder found time to be the last speaker of our first year of existence. We sold out the venue, the presentation was predictably great, and the section's credibility was solidified. This allowed the section to have a planning horizon beyond the next meeting and proceed with building the organization we have today.

You are right Betty – we are standing on the shoulders of giants.
